

The Porch of Maidens,
Erechtheion,
Athens

Ancient Philosophy Society Ninth Annual Independent Meeting April 23-26, 2009, Loyola College in Maryland

The Ancient Philosophy Society was established to provide a forum for diverse scholarship on ancient Greek and Roman texts.

Honoring the richness of the American and European philosophical traditions, the Ancient Philosophy Society supports phenomenological, postmodern, Anglo-American, Straussian, Tübingen School, hermeneutic, psychoanalytic, and feminist interpretations of ancient Greek and Roman philosophical and literary works.

It is the intention that, within the larger aim of assessing the meaning and significance of ancient texts, the Ancient Philosophy Society serve as the site of critical engagement among these various schools of interpretation and that it encourage creative and rigorous independent readings.

For more information on the Society, see:
www.ancientphilosophysociety.org

Persons with disabilities who may require special services should contact the Office of Disability Support Services at 410-617-2062 at least 48 hours prior to the event.

The 9th Annual meeting of the Ancient Philosophy Society will meet at Loyola College in Maryland:

Graduate Centers Loyola Campus
2034 Greenspring Drive
Timonium, MD 21093

Keynote Addresses by:

Dr. Dorothea Frede
University of California, Berkeley;
University of Hamburg

Dr. Joanne Waugh
University of South Florida

Inquiries should be directed to:

Gary Scott
Department of Philosophy
Loyola College in Maryland
4501 North Charles Street
Baltimore, MD 21210

This conference has been made possible by the generous support of The Center for the Humanities, Loyola College in Maryland